Instructions On File*

Colonel L. K. White
125 East Building
2430 "E" Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Colonel White:

25X1A

It has been my recent pleasure to discuss with General [redacted] some of the problems encountered in the field of operational communications. Many of these same problems will confront the Special Forces teams and it is my belief that a closer working liaison should be established between our two offices for the purpose of exchanging information in this field. Especially helpful to the training program for Special Forces units would be information concerning your methods of designing and implementing a signal plan for operations over medium and long distances. Likewise, those training practices which you have gained through experience and are designed to insure the highest skill possible among your communicators, could well be applied to Special Forces training programs.

I suggest that representatives of my office meet on a recurring basis at times mutually convenient with representatives of your office for the purpose of discussing the problems encountered in communications. This exchange should be of mutual benefit and provide a firm basis for a more closely coordinated effort in the event of an emergency.

With kindest personal regards I remain,

Yours sincerely,

O. C. TROXEL, JR.
Major General, USA
Chief of Psychological Warfare
